Dr. Peter Owen Crassweller

Dr. Crassweller passed away peacefully on May 31, 2015 at the Toronto Western Hospital. He was deeply loved by Susannah (now deceased), his wife of 59 years, and six children, Anne, Owen (Kathy), Mara (Colin), Cameron (Sue), Chris, Ian (Gill).

He was a respected and accomplished Urologist at the Toronto Western Hospital for over 40 years, pioneering the development of the kidney transplant. He was Past President of the Canadian Urological Association, and a leader in many professional associations. He taught at the University of Toronto, and published extensively in his field. He always pursued many wonderful interests including golf, carpentry and woodworking, needlepoint, bridge, and cultivating orchids. A leader in his community, including a warden of Grace Church-on-the-Hill and Chairman of the Bishop's Men of Toronto, he was respected by all for his wisdom and professionalism.
