Dr. Leonard Anthony LeBoldus

Dr. LeBoldus passed away peacefully in Winnipeg on April 7, 2012, at the age of 71. He was born in Regina, Saskatchewan, the fourth child of Dr. Martin and Mary LeBoldus. He graduated from the University of Manitoba after completing both his Bachelor of Science and his medical degree. He chose urological surgery as his speciality. After a Post Fellowship Program at Sick Children's Hospital in Toronto, he returned to Winnipeg in 1972 to begin his career and long partnership at the Winnipeg Clinic. As a surgeon, Dr. LeBoldus was blessed with a creative mind, a wonderful pair of hands, and a caring and kind heart. He is survived by his wife Pam, his children Geoff (Vicki and Gillian) of Ottawa, Tom (Laurina) of Calgary and Lauren (Sean) of Vancouver. He is also survived by two brothers: Ron (Irene) of Christopher Lake, SK, and Gordon (Marg) of London, ON and two sisters: Noreen Leitner (Richard) of Regina and Linda LeBoldus also of Regina.
