Dr. Homayoun Khonsari

Dr. Khonsari died on April 10, 2011, at the age of 69. He was predeceased by his wife Mimi, together they raised 3 sons Navid (Vassiliki), Ramin (Maryam) and Ali (Jennifer). He adored his grandchildren Maya, Donya, Reza, Ava, Zara, Masoume and Kleio. He is survived by his brothers Sia (Colleen) and Mehrdad (Mandana) and beloved sister-in-law Lili (Farzad Khalilnia) and their families. He was born in Tehran, Iran. At 8 years old, he left his native country and studied in England and then Ireland. Returning for the summer holidays, he met his wife of 38 years Mimi Vaygani. Together they travelled to Montreal, Canada where Homayoun finished his residency at McGill University and began practicing urology. He returned to Iran in 1972. Dr. Khonsari's prominence as a urologist grew with key roles as the Head of Urology at the University of Tehran and the Dariush Kabir Hospital. He returned to Canada in 1980 where he would remain and raise his family. During the last 31 years, he took on a number of roles at the Royal Victoria Hospital, including 2 terms as Chief of Surgery. His dedication to his job was unprecedented and his genuine affection for all those he worked with was evident from the kindness and love he received in return. His spirit, love and dedication shall always be remembered and celebrated by his family and all those he touched.
